ALBERT PIKE & CO.

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people; standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizen; and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in Constitutional Conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated; do, with the return of peace, demand,

1. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution and civil government of the American people.

2. Amnesty for all past political offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens, and the payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable.

3. All money drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, should be honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and justice, be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

4. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds, and other public securities.

5. One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

6. Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolishment of the freedmen's bureau, and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and the discontinuance of inquisitorial boards for assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened; the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into National forces in time of peace; a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

7. Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from offices, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to, and the independence of the Executive and Judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

8. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; an assertion of American nationality, which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights, and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career, after the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution.

It has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which was rallied that noble volunteer army, which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States in time of peace to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury.

It has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty.

It has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press.

It has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret Star Chamber inquisitions, for constitutional tribunals.

It has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from search and seizures.

It has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters, without any specification or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law.

It has converted the American capitol into a bastile.

It has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort.

It has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President.

Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of debt created during the war.

It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own cabinet.

Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President we will meet as a subject and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with this exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and, if sanctioned by the people, will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized, consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of equal States.

That we regard the reconstruction acts of Congress, so-called, as usurpations, unconstitutional, revolutionary and void, and that our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed widely among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants at the minimum price as established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed, necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands and not the lands themselves should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress on the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative element and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people, and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship and hail all such co-operating with us as friends and brothers.

A CURIOUS CLUB.

The Ku-Klux on a New Trail.

The following amusing account is copied from a late number of the Cincinnati Gazette:

Not long since an organization was started near Crab Orchard, Ky., for the suppression of laziness and drunkenness. The "Klan," as it was called, was said to be made up of both Union men and rebels, the Union men preponderating, and their object was to regulate the labor and manners of their county. If a fellow was found loafing at a cross-roads grocery too much, he was notified to stop it, or he would be flogged within an inch of his life; if a fellow was drinking too much, he received notice to clew up, or take a threshing; if a man neglected his family, or run after other women, a threat of a rope or a rawhide generally brought him to a realizing sense of his duty. These men, in the administration of their justice, were perfectly impartial, threshing rebels and Union men alike, and failing utterly to discriminate on account of color. When the doings of the band were reported to the military authorities at Lexington, they refused to interfere with them, and an officer expressed himself so highly pleased with the operations of the gang that he declared, if he knew the chief, he would invite him to Lexington.

This "Klan," however, have either enlarged their sphere of action, or become incorporated into the famous Ku-Klux, if the following stories are to be relied on:

A gentleman who lives near Camp Dick Robinson, being informed that a party of armed horsemen were approaching his house, took his gun and went up the road, where he got into a wagon-bed sitting by the roadside, when what was his horror to see six big fellows with shot guns pull up within ten feet of him, and begin discussing the best plan of taking him out of his house and hanging him. It was finally resolved that he had too many dogs, negroes and guns to be attacked, and so they went off to find a more defenceless victim—much, however, to the relief of the man in the wagon-bed.

A party of men is reported to have entered Nicholasville and took out of a negro's house a woman whom they supposed to be a white woman living with negroes; but upon investigation the woman was found to be only a faded Kentuckian, her mother being a mulatto, but she being nearly as white as any one. This Klan whipped two negroes the same night for some offence or other with which they were charged.

The other night a party of ten men, armed with shotguns, entered Niggertown, on the suburbs of Lexington, but did no further harm than going through the town and terribly frightening the negroes. When the matter was reported on Saturday, the Bureau made light of it, telling the negroes that they were unnecessarily alarmed, and that he did not believe there was a Ku-Klux within fifty miles of Lexington. On last night, however, affairs assumed a more threatening aspect, and the upper part of the town was in an uproar all night long. As Mr. —— was returning from a neighbor's, a short distance from town, to his home in the city, he was stopped about 11 o'clock near the trestle work of the Covington Railroad by two armed men, who asked him where he was going, and on telling them, they inquired if he knew where the Bureau was, and on receiving a reply in the negative, they inquired if he knew where Gen. Brisbin and Col. Johnston lived? He said he did not, when one of them told him he would have to go with them.

While he was talking with these men, a large body of mounted men, armed with guns and pistols, came down off the road and gathered in the ravine. It was proposed by one that they should go over the gulch, where some negroes were singing and praying in a church, and break up the meeting. Mr. ——, seeing no one was noticing him, slipped away, and running down the road, told a black man to run to the church and notify the negroes of their danger. The man did so, the lights were put out, and the negroes fled terror-stricken to their homes.

Mr. —— ran on into town, and not knowing where any of the officers lived, gave the alarm at the barracks of Company D, 21 U. S. Infantry, and the Sergeant, putting the men under arms, sent for the officers. Capt. Butler formed his company in the barracks, and several citizens and the officers went out to reconnoiter. A body of negroes who had hastily armed themselves, marched out to the gulch where the regulators were reported to be, but found no one. An old negro who saw the party, says that when the negro church broke up so precipitately, they mounted their horses and rode up the hill into the Versailles pike, going in the direction of Versailles and Midway. Mr. —— and several other persons who saw the band, say it numbered not less than fifty men, and was well mounted and armed.

The men were not masked, but none of them were recognized, all seeming to be strangers in these parts. Mr. —— was a soldier in the Union army, and served in Capt. Milward's company. He seems to be a reliable man, and is said to have been a good soldier. While talking with the regulators, they asked him if he had been in the army, and he told them he had served in John Morgan's command, fearing they would hang him if he said he had been a Union soldier. The military authorities are actively tracing the matter up, and the regulators will have to be not only sharp but lucky if they do not get caught and severely punished.

Large Haul of Counterfeiters.

The Cleveland (Ohio) Evening News of Thursday, says:

For some time past the county of Ashtabula has been infested with a gang of counterfeiters, who have been carrying on operations upon an extensive scale. The matter was taken hold of in earnest by the officers of the Government in this city, and the case has been carefully worked up, resulting in the arrest on Tuesday and Wednesday of six persons. Their names are Mason Baker, Wm. G. Sharp, Milo Thornton, George A. Lockwood, Dwight Faulkner and Mrs. Woodworth. The three first named were brought to this city yesterday evening, and the other three to-day.

Pending their examinations, which will take place soon, they were disposed of as follows: Lockwood and Faulkner were released upon their own recognizance in the sum of $2000 each, and Mrs. Woodworth $800. Thornton, Baker and Sharp were committed to jail in default of bail, which was fixed at $10,000 in the case of Thornton, and $500 each for Baker and Sharp.

The worthless money has been procured from the Eastern "manufacturers," and these parties are charged with "shoving" it. Thornton, whose bail is the highest, is the alleged principal in the business, selling the stuff to others. The woman Woodworth is charged with being an accomplice of Thornton, traveling with him from place to place. Thornton has already served a term in the penitentiary, having been sent from this county for passing counterfeit coin in 1855.

—A few weeks ago a vein of copper ore, of yellow sulphuret, was discovered at Vinons, Polk county, Tenn., on the western slope of the Frog mountain, by Capt. A. Chable.

Pre-Historic Remains in the Mississippi Valley.

MOUNDS ON THE AMERICAN BOTTOM.

Mr. W. DeHaas writes to the St. Louis Democrat:

"The mounds on the American Bottom, in Illinois, are comprised in two separate groups, constituting one grand and imposing system. They number nearly two hundred, including those on the adjacent bluff. They are of various sizes and shapes, rising from the scarcely distinguishable elevation to the imposing structure of over ninety feet. They are conical, ellipsoidal, truncated, square and tetrogonal. They are entirely of earth, and raised with as much regularity and symmetry as a potter would mould a model in clay. They have all been formed from material taken from the adjacent plain or bluff—vegetable mould, clay and soil, and present a marked mottled appearance, identical with the mounds in the Ohio valley. Every mound has been elevated by human labor, and he who denies this self-evident fact, simply acknowledges himself ignorant of the subject. The evidence, externally and internally, position, structure, character and contents, clearly, positively and unmistakably prove this.

"The tumuli under consideration were probably all erected by the same people. We cannot here, as in the case of the ancient Britons, determine from the character of the mounds the type of race they cover. There, the long, or elliptical barrow contains the long or dolichocephalic head; and per contra, the round or conical barrow contains the round or brachycephalic head. Here, we have the long and round mounds, but not human crania of corresponding type confined to these forms. We have here the semi-prognathous and pyramidal heads, but not confined to any particular form of mounds.

"The fictilia from these western mounds consists of distinct qualities. One is fine, compact, close-grained, kiln-burned, painted and tastefully ornamented, moulded for a breccia composed of clay, and proved much skill. The other is coarse, rude, of irregular thickness, sun-dried, ornamentative without taste, and composed of clay and small rhomboidal fragments of white epathic carbonate of lime, and some of simple clay. Some of the finer quality occasionally shows a polishing or glazing, leaving minute striæ, as if done with a tuft of grass dipped into a barbotte.

"In making some excavations on the plain, a short distance west of the large mound, I discovered large quantities of pottery in connection with human remains. Some of them were rude and quite heavy. One was clearly a cinirary urn.

"The implements, ornaments and weapons in stone indicate two classes—one representing the palæolithic, or undressed stone age; the other the neolithic, or polished stone age, of Sir John Lubbock. Some of the specimens of the finer quality are of exquisite skill and workmanship. They are of porphyry, hornebledæ, granite, serpentine, nephrite, and the hardest varieties of amphabolic rock.

"One of the most interesting classes is agricultural. They are unlike any implements or utensils in store, found in the Ohio valley, or any other part of the country. They were undoubtedly used in tilling the soil. One represents the modern hoe, and our domestic implement is but little improvement on that of the mound builders. A specimen before me is of limpir quartz, of faultless workmanship. Their smaller quartz weapons are very fine—ranging from the common horn stone up through all the varieties to the present chalcedony. The celts or axes represent an extensive class, and are of almost every style and finish. Some are very large, weighing over ten pounds. A granitic implement far surpasses these in size, some weighing over twenty-five pounds. The use of this was probably to dress hides or crush corn. Their mortars and pestles have been recovered, their pipes, discs and porphyrtic rings for games.

"The household goods—lares and penates of a people forever lost—are among the contents of mounds added to the fine collection of early art which I have made in this interesting region.

"The ornaments with which they decorated their persons, the weapons with which they fought, the implements with which they fought, the implements with which they slew their game, and the vessels with which their domestic board was served with viands, have all been recovered, with a large number of miscellaneous articles in stone, which constitute, with those from other antiquarian localities, one of the most extensive and valuable collections of early American art yet made.

"One object sought in these researches is to make a full collection of ancient art, representing the archæology of the northern division of the western continent."

Grant's Speech on National Affairs at St. Joseph, Mo.

At St. Joseph, Missouri, on Thursday, Gen. Grant, accompanied by his poor relation, Dent, and by Gen. Sheridan, made an important and lengthy address upon national affairs. We give the oration in full:

GRANT'S ANNUNCIATION OF HIS POLICY.

"I return my sincere thanks for this hearty reception."

HIS OPINION OF RECONSTRUCTION.

"I have been traveling for two weeks, every day."

WHAT HE THINKS OF FINANCE.

"And most of the time at night, over mountains."

CONCERNING NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

"Visiting this Western country, which I am now seeing for the first time."

GLORIOUS FUTURE OF OUR COUNTRY.

"I am fatigued, weary, dusty and unable to address you."

A MAGNIFICENT PERORATION.

"I thank you, but I cannot speak to you this evening."

At this point the eloquent gentleman concluded his exhaustive and convincing address, and the audience dispersed with the most tremendous cheers for Seymour and Blair.

ALABAMA.

—The President of the Loyal League at Elyton is in jail for stealing bacon.

—The Marion Commonwealth says there will not be half a cotton crop made in Perry county.

—The Dadeville East Alabamian, July 31st, reports the corn not so much injured as was anticipated.

—Judge Oliver, of Green county, refuses to surrender the Probate office, unless forcibly compelled to do so.

—The Carrollton West Alabamian says the rain is too late to save the corn, but just in time to ruin the cotton.

—Three negroes and two white men broke jail at Jacksonville last week. Two of the negroes and one white man have been re-captured.

—The Florence Index, which has been neutral heretofore, has hoisted the names of Seymour and Blair, and indorses their nomination with a strong editorial.

MISSISSIPPI.

—The Oktibbeha New Era of the 1st says it has rained nine days in the last ten.

—J. R. Naron, the Representative from Oktibbeha county, has abandoned the Radicals.

—Judge Wm. M. Hancock explains his advocacy of the Constitution, and returns to the Democracy.

—The Yazoo Banner of July 31st says: Crop prospects in this county are thus far very flattering. Although we have had a good deal of rain, the cotton is thus far very little injured, and with favorable weather we will undoubtedly have an excellent yield.

—During July 25,000 emigrants reached New York.

—It appears that nearly two millions sterling of the Canadian inter-colonial railroad loan were taken by the Barings at 105, and only a half of the proposed 4,000,000 were offered.

External Application,

No internal adjuvants being required in any case, only to regulate the bowels, if constipated, or in Diarrhea and Dysentery.

The PILES, while astonishingly prevalent in their various forms amongst all classes of both sexes, are, at the same time, the most distressing, frequently dangerous, and hitherto most difficult of cure.

Persons who suffer any length of time with the Piles generally try everything they can learn of purporting to cure the disease, yet realize no permanent advantage therefrom. They have been told professionally, perhaps, there was "no permanent cure for Piles," and consequently have despaired of any future cessation from pain and suffering.

To all such a SPECIFIC is offered for their relief. The

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

ALBERT PIKE & CO

Vera Atque Honesta Dicere.

IS IT TO BE PEACE OR THE SWORD?

It is more than a month since the nomination of Seymour and Blair was made known in Memphis. Upon only three or four hours' notice, the announcement was welcomed by one of the most imposing and enthusiastic demonstrations that we have ever seen. Thousands of citizens congregated, marched in procession through our streets, and until one o'clock in the morning listened to the various speakers who addressed them. During the whole time there was no disorder, no drunkenness, no ill-humor, but everything was conducted with utmost propriety, order and decorum. Men seemed to feel that they were engaged in a more important, a higher and a graver controversy than the ordinary strifes of politics are, and all acted like men engaging in a great cause, and assuming serious responsibilities.

Since then, the enthusiasm, far from diminishing, has continued to increase. The organization of Democratic clubs for the county has been followed by the establishment of clubs in every ward, and of several independent clubs, all of which are flourishing, and full of zeal, energy and fire. Every night some club meets, and often two or three on the same night. On Wednesday last as fine an audience filled the New Memphis Theater as we ever saw, and listened with marked and unwearied attention to the speakers who addressed them.

And yet, everywhere and on all occasions we see the same grave earnestness mingling with the enthusiasm and zeal of the people, the earnestness and gravity of men chastened by the discipline of calamity and sorrow, and knowing the immense importance of the issues involved in the contest, whose ending no man can foresee.

There have been threats of violence to no one; there has not been a single act of violence committed by any Democrat, during all this month. When a Club adjourns, its members go peaceably and quietly to their homes. No speaker has counseled violence, or armed resistance to the law. The Governor asserts that we intend to overturn the State Government; and that, in one sense, is true. We mean to revolutionize it by votes, and by votes alone. We hope to live to see the day when there will be a government in Tennessee, founded upon, and the organ of, the will of the white men of the State. But that we contemplate violence is false.

For it has, on the contrary, been continually impressed on those whom our speakers have addressed, that to resort to violence or resist the execution of the laws of the State would be to lose all.

"There must be no resistance of the laws, hard as they are," said one of the speakers of Wednesday night. "On the frontier of the State hangs the dark cloud of the Federal soldiery, ready to march against us at the first call from Wm. G. Brownlow, and with the bayonet to quell insubordination. If we resist the law, we cross the dead-line, to step over which, as it was to cross those of Northern and Southern prisons during the war, is death. I will advance to the very line. I will stand on the extreme verge of my lawful rights: but I will not cross nor advise others to cross the line. I will not be instrumental in leading any young man, by the counsels of rashness, into dangers from which I should be powerless to extricate them."

"We must succeed, if at all," he said, "by peaceful means. But it is your right, and it is equally your duty, to arm for your self-defence. No people procures immunity or peace or safety, by disarming itself. You have the right to keep and bear arms for your common defence; and you will indeed be egregious simpletons if you do not arm and organize, to be ready to defend yourselves, your homes and your households against unprovoked violence and outrage. We all desire peace. God grant that I may be laid down to rest in the grave without again seeing brother armed against brother, and the land rent with civil war. We wish and pray for peace; and when our rights as freemen and citizens are restored to us, and not until then, there will be permanent peace."

The Legislature of Tennessee has been assured by those authorized to say it, that such are the sentiments of the disfranchised men of the State. Strenuous efforts have been made to induce the Legislature to enfranchise them, and to refrain from giving the Governor a standing army, with which to inaugurate civil war.

These efforts have failed. The House of Representatives decides that this is not a fit time to consider the question of franchise, and dismisses the petitioners for enfranchisement from its bar, with profound contempt; and it is now well understood that the militia or standing army bill is to be passed.

Peace in the South is that which the Radical leaders most dread. They want, they need a disturbance, an insurrection, a civil war, as the sure means of winning for Grant the votes of the Northern States; and those who have the means of knowing positively, assert that the Radical Executive Committee has determined to provoke such a conflict in Tennessee, where an organized force of negroes is ready to their hand, and for the most part armed.

It was threatened, some weeks since, that a regiment or two of the militia should be stationed here in Memphis, to subsist on the people. A gentleman living on Elliott street, asserts that to his certain knowledge, a load of arms was delivered some time since, at a negro church in his vicinity. On Saturday evening last, there was imminent danger of an attack by the negroes congregated on the bluff, upon the Democratic assemblages of that evening, the negroes proposing, if they met any of these, "to go through them," and being only prevented by a few of the more moderate of their white leaders.

Mr. Barbour Lewis asserted, a few nights ago, that it was an unpardonable slander to say that the negroes were drilled at night in the suburbs of the city, and they, responding to him, declared the charge a lie, (an expression assigned erroneously to himself.) He assures us that if it be true, he will do all in his power to put a stop to it. We demand that he keep his promise; for assurances continue to come to us that the denials of his audience were not true.

To arm a negro militia and station them among the people will be the almost certain means of producing disturbances and blood-shed. Almost! nay, the certain means. This those know who are urging the adoption of the measure; and none know it better than those who have come here from Washington, bearing the instructions of the National Radical Executive Committee.

The disfranchised white men of Tennessee are neither idiots nor insane. They well know that no measures of violence are practicable for them, or could effect anything to their profit. They know that they cannot revolutionize the State by violence. They only ask to be enfranchised; and they do not dream of effecting that by force. If enfranchised they can by themselves change nothing. To make any change of the laws or Constitution, they must secure the co-operation of part of the negroes or part of the Union men of the State. Certainly, unless these unite with them, they cannot take from the negro the right of suffrage.

Moreover, they know that the Democratic party in the North is already injured by rash speeches in the South, and that if any violence were resorted to by us, and the result were disturbance and bloodshed, it would cost Seymour and Blair a hundred thousand votes.

The Radical leaders also know this, and are anxious to provoke, and mean to provoke a collision. For they rely upon their facilities for misrepresentation, and their ability, by means of evidence skilfully taken and manipulated, to make it appear that we were the aggressors, although we may have acted strictly in self-defence. That is a horrid game of chess in which political schemers, infamous as Nero, play with human lives for pawns.

We are utterly opposed to any discussions here in Memphis, before mixed audiences of Democrats and Radicals, by speakers of each party. The first of these would produce the collision which every man who has a human heart in his bosom ought to labor to avert. For God's sake, let us not put the match to the magazine!

There is no denunciation of the negro at our meetings. It is not he whom we blame. If we propose not to employ those who vote to continue our disfranchisement, that is a measure of self-defence, not prompted by ill-will or hate. We do not propose to abridge his civil rights, although many of us do not think him qualified to vote. Let the Radical leaders and itinerant followers cease to exasperate them against us. They are like men who fling fire about in a powder-mill, and are inciting the negroes to become murderous cut-throats. We propose only to convince him, by displays of our numbers that he cannot mistake, that the immense majority of white men among whom he lives, and to whom he looks for employment, are Democrats, and so to appeal to his interests, which must prompt him to side with that majority and not to make every man of it an enemy.

Messrs. Fitch, Beaumont, Tomeny, and Bingham, there is no personal animosity or ill-will between you and us. We may with propriety appeal to you, and to men like you, to prevent, if you can, a collision that would in the end drape half the houses of Memphis in mourning. You are humane men and gentlemen. You also have families, who, already agitated by alarm, would be endangered as well as ours, by riot and the license of armed men in a bloody commotion, when all the passions of man's animal nature were inflamed. You can find wise and prudent men among the Conservatives who will co-operate with you to prevent the conflict of arms and the murderous scenes of civil commotion.

We will stand upon the defensive. We know too well under what enormous disadvantages we labor to provoke a conflict. But we are not defenceless; and those who hold us disfranchised must not themselves resort to aggressive violence or insults. To everything else we will submit, possessing our souls in patience, and waiting for the day of our redemption.

SECURING THE SOUTH FOR GRANT.

A bill has passed the Legislature of Alabama, a body whose members have no more right to legislate than so many field hands on any plantation, for the election of Presidential Electors by the Legislature itself. The Governor of the State will no doubt approve it, and Congress will acknowledge it to be a law.

The Constitution provides that the Electors, in each State, "shall be appointed in such manner as the Legislature may direct." We quote from memory, but, we believe, correctly. So that, if the body sitting at Montgomery is a Legislature, it has the right to take from the people the choice of Electors, and elect them itself, as was always done in South Carolina before the war.

This precedent is, it is pretty well understood, to be followed in the other reconstructed States. The resources of Jacobinism are unlimited; and this new "dodge" is but one of the infamous consequences of the imposition upon the people of a State, of a Constitution which they voted down, and a Legislature whom they did not elect. It is only one of the natural consequences of a crime that demonstrates the enormity of the crime itself.

Is the precedent to be followed in Tennessee? That, we believe, is not settled. It will be, if there should be, a month or two from this time, any doubt as to the vote of the State under the existing franchise law. The Edict has gone forth from the Radical headquarters at Washington, that in this way, if necessary, every Southern State is to be made secure for Grant. If the Electoral vote of the Northern States should be against him, and these legislative votes elect him, will the Democratic party submit to it? Will the Northern people submit to it? It is no greater an outrage for a Legislature that exists by usurpation and fraud, to exercise the right of choosing electors, than for it to make laws for the government of the people of the State. The only remedy will be to overturn the whole fabric of fraud, from turret to foundation stone.

For our own part, we rejoice at every step in advance which Jacobinism takes. Every new usurpation is a nail driven into its coffin. Surely the sense of justice of the people of the North will not always sleep; and even in Radical bosoms there must be some lingering remains of a conscience. We are curious to see what the Tennessee Legislature will do. The Governor usurps the power of appointing Judges: the Legislature may with more propriety take the power of appointing Electors. Is it to be done?

—Instructions are to be sent to the military commanders in Louisiana and other Southern States, for their guidance under the circumstances presented by the call of State authorities for troops. It is believed the present force in those States is sufficient for the preservation of order.

Night Dispatches.

VIRGINIA.

WHEELING, August 9.—The campaign in this city was opened on Saturday night by the Republicans holding a large meeting in Washington Hall, under the auspices of the Grant and Colfax Club. Hon. John A. Bingham, of Ohio, and Hon. W. E. Stevenson, Republican candidate for Governor of this State, were the speakers.

DETROIT.

DETROIT, August 9.—Frank Reno and Charles Anderson were arrested at Windsor last night, for robbing Adams Express Company at Marshfield, Ind., on the Jeffersonville Railroad, the 20th of May. It will be remembered that they assaulted the engineer, stole the engine and express car, and while under full headway threw the messenger from the car, fatally injuring him. If Reno is extradited, the last male member of this family of villains will be safe for some years to come. Anderson, who was arrested with Reno, is a noted English burglar, and has figured in some of the boldest burglaries in the States.

SARATOGA.

SARATOGA, August 8.—Hon. Fernando Wood gave a dinner party at the Lake House this afternoon, at which the following distinguished gentlemen were present: Hon. Fernando Wood, host; Hon. Sanford E. Church, Hon. A. W. Randall, Postmaster General; Hon. Mr. Ingersoll, Hon. Henry C. Murphy, Gov. Bowie, of Maryland; Hon. Jas. R. Barrett, ex-Mayor of Washington; Judge Sutherland, of New York; Hon. S. S. Cox, ex-Recorder; Jas. N. Smith, jr., Hon. Erastus Corning, Hon. James M. Marvin, M. C.; Hon. J. G. Saxe, Hon. Sam'l. G. Courtney. It was intended to to have had Mayor Hoffman one of the party, but he was called away on business.

Gen. D. E. Sickles and Gov. Fenton are to be serenaded at the Union Hotel on Monday evening.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, August 9.—The Etendard says that an interview between Lord Hauley and the Marquis de Maustein transpired yesterday. The most satisfactory assurances of peace were exchanged, and that the confidence of both Ministers in the future tranquility of Europe has been strongly confirmed by the opportunity they have thus had of reviving a good understanding, which has so long existed between the governments of Great Britain and France.

The Monitor has the following special advices from Japan: The new Envoy of France, M. Ontray, arrived at Yokohoma on the 6th of July.

It was reported that Northern Diamos had taken possession of Yeddo. The party of Mikado was acting with great vigor, and had mustered a large army to meet the rebel forces.

FLORENCE, August 9.—The bill providing for carying into effect the Tobacco Convention has been passed.

PESTHE, August 8.—The Governor of Pesthe has caused the arrest of the Servian Prince Alexander Kavageorgemoeh, who has been residing in this city since the assassination of Prince Michael.

LUCERNE, August 9.—Her Majesty the Queen of England arrived in this city yesterday.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

COLUMBIA, August 9.—The Democratic Electoral Convention adjourned yesterday. Every district of the State, thirty-one in number, was represented. On motion of Mr. Hampton, Capt. Medary was made Vice-President of the Convention.

A committee from the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention were invited to seats, amid great applause.

On motion of Judge Aldrich, a resolution of thanks in the name of the Democracy of South Carolina was extended to the delegations from the Northeast and Northwest, by whom the Southern delegations were so cordially received at New York. The resolutions say, "We accept the reception as evidence of sympathy and sincerity, and gratefully declare that it has done more to heal the wounds of the past than any event since the war." The other resolutions indorse the platform adopted by the National Democratic Convention, express gratitude to Andrew Johnson and return thanks to citizens, soldiers and sailors North who raised their voices in behalf of this insulted and outraged section. On motion of Mr. Hampton it was resolved that while entering our protest against the Radical reconstruction act, we rely confidently on constitutional agencies and peaceful measures alone to bring us the relief sought, and the reform needed. Wade Hampton made a speech in which, alluding to recently reported utterances of his in the northern papers in reference to Confederate flag, he said this statement is in every respect false. On the contrary, when I spoke of the flag of the Confederate States army, I remarked it now was furled forever, to be buried in the grave of the lost cause.

The proceedings were exceedingly harmonious.

Affidavits are published in the newspapers of the State purporting to prove the Comptroller, Gen. Neagle, to be a forger. The Republicans say the safety of the party demands he shall either disprove the charge or resign.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, August 9.—The pilot boat Nettie arrived here last night. She reports that she fell in, on the 6th inst., with a bark water-logged, abandoned and sinking, ninety miles from Sandy Hook. She was towed to the highlands and given in charge of the Louisiana Wrecking Company, who pumped her out, when the name of the vessel was ascertained to be H. Trowbridge, of New Haven, which sailed hence from Barbadoes on the 4th inst. The bodies of three seamen were found in the hold. Capt. Hotchkiss was in command, and had his family on board, and as they have not been heard from, they are supposed to have been lost overboard in the gale, as it must have been a gale which caused the wreck.

Lightning struck a tenement house on Fifty-fifth street yesterday evening, also smashed a large flagstaff in Bedford street. No persons injured.

Richardson's life of Gen. Grant is out, and already 10,000 subscriptions received. It contains a large number of letters on Mexican and other matters never before published.

Croillies' life of Seymour will be out in a day or two.

The sentence of Ratsky, who murdered Feliner, a diamond peddlar, in Brooklyn seven years ago, and who was serving a life term in Sing Sing prison, has been commuted by Gov. Fenton to ten years, commencing with the date of his imprisonment. This gives him only two years and a half yet to serve.

The post office at Norwich, Conn., was entered Thursday night, the money drawer robbed, and a large number of letters rifled of their contents.

Gen. Butler made a speech in Gloucester, Mass., yesterday, in which he expressed himself still in favor of impeachment. He said he had become friendly again with Gen. Grant, and will support him for President.

Mrs. Mary Woodward, of Harvard, Mass., has been held in $1000 bail for inhuman treatment of her step-son, six years old. It was testified in the Police Court that the child had been whipped by the hour at a time with a heavy stick. That one day in July the woman drew three buckets of cold water from a well and, seizing the child, removed his clothing and placed him in a tub and dashed the water on his head. She then took him by his feet and held his head in the water as long as she dared. That recently a cat brou, a meadow mole in the house which the mother cooked and compelled the child to eat. Mrs. Woodward, in Court, said it was not a mole but a rat.

The steamship City of Baltimore from Liverpool the 29th and Queenstown the 30th, has arrived.

The Moniteur says the French trans-Atlantic Cable will be finished by the 15th of August, 1869.

The Liberte says Dr. Pusey has become a convert to Roman Catholicism.

Rumor says that three distinguished Jurists, Sir W. Page Wood, and Sirs Fitzrony and Kelly will be raised to the British peerage.

Osborne Wood, delegate from the associated workingmen of New York, arrived in Paris on a tour of Europe for the study of the situation of the laboring classes and the development of the co-operative system.

The Italian Parliament passed a bill according pensions to widows and orphans of doctors who died in attending cholera patients.

A strike of the journeymen bakers in Vienna was threatened on the 30th ult. Violent demonstration were made in Pareguay in the name of Bohemian nationalities. Placards threatening Benet and insulting the Emperor were posted in several places. The garrison is about to be reinforced.

Nine Christian Churches of the primitive Byzantine style of architecture have been discovered at Salibala, the Holy City of Abyssinia, which has not been visited by Europeans for over three centuries.

A Berlin letter says the rumors of conciliation between the Prussian and Austrian cabinets do not meet with an encouraging reception, besides such negotiations would not be undertaken in the absence of Bismarck.

J. & E. Borderey & Co., of London, in the provision trade, suspended in consequence of the suspension of a firm in New York which was largely indebted to them.

The entire provinces of Spain are suffering severely, and are threatened with famine. The distress is greater than at any time for a half century.

LATE NEWS.

—Jefferson Davis was loudly cheered on the Liverpool 'change.

—A Paris letter says positively France, Belgium and Holland have arranged for a military and commercial convention, and will probably be joined by Sweden, Norway and Denmark.

—Paris papers say all the contracts are completed for laying the French Atlantic Cable next year. Four ships will accompany the Great Eastern.

—A prominent Wall street operator disappeared on Saturday with $100,000 belonging to his friends.

—Six suicides and five unsuccessful attempts were reported in New York City on Friday.

—A murderous affray occurred at Warsaw, Mo., on the 6th. It seems that warrants were put in the hands of Sheriff Mitchell for the arrest of two men named Dickinson and Harris, the former indicted for murder. Dickinson was arrested without difficulty, but when the Sheriff's party approached the house in which Harris, who is a notorious desperado, had taken refuge, the demand for surrender was answered by a volley from double-barreled guns, fired from the windows, resulting in the death of the Sheriff's brother, Jasper Mitchell, and a man named Horace E. Petts, and the mortal wounding of W. W. Smith. The Sheriff's party then retired.

CITY MATTERS.

THERE are fifty boarders at the Hotel de Beaumont, on Adams street.

ALL THE CHURCHES were well attended yesterday.

THE WEATHER was clear and quite warm yesterday. The rainy spell which threatened us is broken up we hope.

BANKRUPT sale of P. I. Huette & Co., of Drugs, Fancy Articles, etc., No. 195 Main street, on Tuesday morning, 11th inst., at 10 o'clock a. m., without reserve. Sale to continue daily until all is sold.

THE HEALTH of the city never was better for this season of the year. We hear, however, of some chills and fever, and a few cases of congestion,—among the latter we were pained to learn that our friend Eugene Magevney was taken down on Saturday night. He was much better yesterday evening, and will no doubt soon recover.

SECOND WARD.—The regular weekly meeting of the Second Ward Democratic Club, will be held at the Poplar street engine house, on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Every member is expected to be present, as business of the utmost importance will be transacted. Able speakers will be on hand.

By order of the President.

J. V. SAVAGE, Secretary.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Any person who can give information as to the whereabouts of Mrs. Kesiah Gatewood, or Rachael or Andrew J. Gatewood will oblige us by communicating with this office immediately. Mrs. Elizabeth Warren, a daughter of Mrs. Gatewood, is now in this city in search of her mother, sister or brother. The family lived at Grand Junction before the war, but are now said to be in Memphis.

PERSONAL.

—Capt. D. De Haven arrived in the city yesterday evening, from New Orleans. The Captain is looking well, and reports the most cheering progress in his great enterprise. A paper indorsing him and his plans has been circulated in New Orleans, and has obtained the signature of almost every prominent citizen and merchant.

—Mr. Steffey, of the Iuka Springs Hotel, dropped in upon us last night. From him we learn that another Soiree Dansante will come off at the Springs on the 21st inst. It will be a magnificent affair, and the friends of the proprietors, Messrs. Steffey & Barchus, are all invited to be present.

IMPORTANT ARRESTS.—Two important arrests were made by the First District Police yesterday. The first was Thomas Kinney, a negro, who, some five weeks ago, shot and wounded very severely, another negro, named Steve Geder, some ten miles from the city, on the State Line road. Geder, who was for two weeks at the point of death from his wound, ultimately recovered, and yesterday morning gave Sergeant Brown, of the First District, information on which Kinney was arrested. He was Lodged in the Adams street Station, and will have a hearing this morning.

The second was Martin Stanton, who is accused of having assaulted James Cain three weeks ago, at the foot of Exchange street, in Happy Hollow. The two got into an altercation and Stanton seized an ax and drove it into the head of Cain. Cain is now lying in a very critical condition in the City Hospital, and we learn by a note from Dr. Keliar, may die from his wounds. Stanton is locked up in Adams street Station to await the issue.

A LEGACY.—Many a man has toiled away a lifetime, laying up in driblets, the proceeds of his labor, in order that those whom he loved better than life itself, might have something to keep the wolf from the door when he was no more, and the dark and silent grave had claimed its own; and yet, when the reaper overtook him, he still had but a scanty pittance saved—scarcely enough to pay the undertakers' bill and buy the "funeral baked meats." And all this from a false idea of economy. In the daily press, for years, have the advantages, the necessity and the obligations of Life Insurance been placed before him. He has read and read over and over again, and if they produced any effect at all, it was the ejaculation of some excuse for not seizing upon the advantages offered. "I cannot afford it," is generally the cry; and yet who can look for a moment at the principles that govern any well established Life Insurance Company, and can truly say this? But we did not intend to argue on this point—it is too well understood. The only question with any thinking man now is, in which of these numerous companies shall I insure? We would unhesitatingly answer, the ST. LOUIS MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, of which Messrs. McMahon & Otis, No. 43 Madison street are the agents, and this for a dozen good reasons, the least of which is amply sufficient to cover the ground. There is one reason, however, paramount to all others—it pays all losses incurred by it without quibbie, litigation or delay—which is a vast deal more than can be said of some other similar institutions.

NASHVILLE AND NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY REOPENED.—We take pleasure in announcing the reopening of this popular route to Nashville, and feel sure that all visitors to our State capital will appreciate the following most excellent and convenient time table: Leave Memphis via Memphis and Ohio railroad at 4 a.m.; arrive at Nashville at 6:45 a.m. Returning, leave Nashville at 5:15 p.m.; arrive at Memphis at 9:15 a.m. Just the hours to suit business or pleasure. Elegant new coaches, polite and experienced officials, sure connections, besides being 29 miles shortest, makes this by far the most desirable route.

SCRIMMAGE AT BATESVILLE.

A Shooting Affray---All About a Dog.

The little village of Batesville, on the Mississippi and Tennessee R. R., furnishes us with an item, which came very near being a tragedy, and which illustrates very forcibly the old adage of "love me, love my dog."

It appears that one day last week, a Mr. Jim Davis shot and killed a dog which belonged to a Mr. Charley Taylor. Mr. Taylor was very naturally indignant, for, no matter how mean a cur may be, he has generally some one who has an affection for him; so when he met Mr. Davis he upbraided him in no very measured terms for having curtailed the existence of his cur-tailed pet. Of course, hard words begot hard words; both parties became excited, and pistols were drawn. We were not informed who fired first, or whether Mr. Davis fired at all, but during the melee, Mr. Davis was shot in the breast, the ball striking the sternum, passing round and coming out under the left nipple, and making a severe though not a serious wound. Had the ball struck a quarter of an inch lower down, or on either side, it would undoubtedly have proved fatal.

THE MEETING OF EX-CONFEDERATES.

The Resolutions.

We present below the resolutions which were passed at the meeting at Greenlaw Opera House Saturday night. Owing to a failure on the part of the Avalanche to furnish us "proofs" of the same in time, we were unable to present them to our readers yesterday morning:

WHEREAS, N. B. Forrest, B. F. Cheatham, William B. Bate, Gid. J. Pillow, John C. Brown, S. R. Anderson, William A. Quarles, Joseph B. Palmer, S. G. Dibrell, George Maney, Bushrod R. Johnson, C. W. Gordon and Thomas B. Smith, late Generals in the Confederate army, having, during the late civil war commanded the great body of Tennessee soldiers in the Southern armies, and, having a just influence with the members of their former commands, did make overtures to the Legislature of Tennessee, now in session at Nashville, for the preservation of the peace of the State, and in their appeal in this behalf, did undertake to speak for their late comrades in arms; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, a portion of the officers and soldiers actively engaged in the late armed struggle between the United States and the late Confederate States, on behalf of the South, do approve the earnest appeal for peace made by the gentlemen above named—our former officers—and earnestly second their efforts made for pacification.

2. That in representing the late Confederate soldier as intent on peace—devoted to the active pursuits of life in maintaining themselves and families, recovering their material interests from the waste and ruin occasioned by the war, and as not harboring any purpose to overthrow by violence the present State Government, or by arms to resist the laws—they spoke truthfully, and properly designated the sentiments, purposes and practice of the ex Confederate soldiers here assembled, and as we believe, of every such soldier in the State, who did his duty in arms in the late war as a soldier.

3. That when the armies of the South surrendered they did so in good faith—intending to abide by such issues as were considered at the time by both parties settled by the war. But we feel authorized on this occasion to say, that we did not understand the terms of surrender to contemplate the total deprivation of all civil and political rights, and to be declared outlaws and felons.

4. That we have not entertained and do not now entertain any purpose to renew the war or inaugurate intestine commotion. We are neither conspirants, nor revolutionists, and deprecate as the greatest evil the introduction of violence into the administration of affairs. Having experienced the pressure of war in all its most terrible aspects, we are utterly unwilling to invoke it, and most sincerely protest against all measures calculated to incite it.

5. That, nevertheless, conscious of our dignity and rights as AMERICAN CITIZENS, we cannot but regard the withholding of the elective franchise from us as unjust and utterly unwarranted by any conduct on our part.

6. That we deplore the threatened action of the Legislature, looking to the calling out of a militia force. We are compelled, in justice to ourselves and the people of the State, to denounce as unworthy of credit the professions of the projectors of the measure, when they allege that their object is the keeping of the peace. On the contrary, we are satisfied from the evidence at hand that their purpose is the reverse; that they mean through the unbridled license of a vagabond militia to provoke the people of the State into resistance and bring on a conflict between the two races, and that this is done at the instigation and in the interest of the managers of the Radical party, in order that the public mind of the North may be unjustly inflamed against the people of the South, and thus prevent the defeat of that party in the Northern States. In other words, Tennessee is to be subjected to the horrors of intestine war as part of the programme of the Radical campaign in the North. We further proclaim that the alleged acts of violence, urged as a ground for this contemplated action, are mere excuses, fabricated for the purpose of concealing the true object of this corrupt Radical party; because from the best evidence we can obtain, the victims of the acts of violence complained of have been devoted to summary punishment without reference to their political opinions, and were notorious criminals, oftentimes guilty of those crimes which in any community would subject them to swift punishment. Some of these victims were known to have been Confederate soldiers. The necessity for such irregular administration of justice we deeply deplore, but are compelled in truth to attribute it to these causes: The inefficiency of the courts, the reckless use of the pardoning power by the Executive of the State, and the license encouraged in the deluded freedman by the men who are using him in order to build up in this State a Radical organization.

7. We pledge ourselves, and solicit all Confederate soldiers throughout the State, to use the utmost diligence and caution to avoid a collision with the militia, or with any portion of the inhabitants of the State, and to preserve the peace. Let all good soldiers remember that dignified patience under adverse fortune is as great an exhibition of courage, as the most daring deeds on the battlefield; and when the liberties of a whole country depend on his moderation under insult and injury, then forbearance evinces the highest qualities of the true soldier. We in the utmost good faith recognize the present Federal and State Governments as our own as at present constituted, until changed by lawful and peaceful means, and to show the faith of our professions we pledge ourselves to stand by both, and to fight for both, when called on to protect the same against foreign or domestic foes. And we, representing the masses of the people of Tennessee, do solemnly protest against being considered domestic foes.

That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Governor of the State, and to the chairman of the Military Committee of the House of Representatives.

OLD HARDEMAN ALL RIGHT.

Meeting of the Constitutional Union Club.

A Rousing Time.

On Saturday last the above Democratic Club of old Hardeman county met at Pocahontas, and was addressed by Mayor Hubbard, Gen. Wallacce and Col. Avery. The existence of the above club is significant, when it becomes known that it numbers one hundred and fifty-one members, a great majority of whom are well known Union men, who heretofore acted with the Radical party. The voting precinct of Pocahontas in the late election polled but four votes for the Conservative candidates; but now the above club contains every old, well-tried Union man that in that election voted for Brownlow, they having become disgusted with Radical negro rule.

Col. J. L. Rosson, the President of the club, introduced Mayor Hubbard in a well timed speech, full of broad Conservative sentiments.

Mayor Hubbard spoke at length, contrasting the two platforms, showing up the rottenness of the Chicago platform, and the broad comprehensiveness contained in the Democratic one. He commented on the franchise law of the State, portraying the injustice of its provisions towards the white citizens of the State. The official corruption of our State Government, displayed in the theft of the school fund, was shown up in glaring colors. He invoked the citizens of Hardeman county to rebuke this shameful expenditure of public money. Mayor Hubbard spoke about an hour, and was loudly applauded.

Gen. Wallace next addressed the meeting, speaking nearly two hours. He administered a scathing rebuke to the plunderers of the State and county treasuries, holding up the official corruption of Radical officeholders in Memphis and Shelby county to the gaze of the consistent Union men of old Hardeman. He mentioned the fact that the Confederate authorities carried the school fund of Tennessee from State to State untouched, and at last surrendered it to the State only to be squandered by the Radical authorities who received it—a remarkable contrast between integrity and villainy. After reviewing the history of the State since the close of the war, he referred to the special session of the Legislature called ostensibly for the purpose of attending to the credit of the State, but really to enact laws against the rights and liberties of the citizens by organizing a military force for party purposes. He paid his respects to Bill Stokes, who calls so loudly for arms and war, reviewing the celebrated Duncan letter and Stokes' record generally, in terms not by any means complimentary to the famous William. General Wallace made a forcible and effective speech. At its close many old Union men congratulated the General, and pledged themselves to act with the Democratic party henceforth. A large number of the members of the club served in the Federal army during the war between the States, and, since the close of the war, have acted and voted with the Radical party; but being consistent Union men, they refuse to follow the Radicals into schemes of official plunder, or permit themselves to indorse measures that have in view a war of races, plunder and military despotism. Gen. Wallace's speech was made at the right place and with the happiest effect. Several Union men, who had heretofore held aloof from the Conservative Club, advanced and subscribed their names, asserting that in this contest they were for Seymour and Blair.

Col. Avery made the closing speech, in his usually earnest and forcible manner, entering into an exposure of the finances of the country, giving facts and figures, showing the manner in which the public debt was being enlarged, and proving the wasteful expenditures of public money in the appropriation of millions for the bureaus, islands of icebergs and earthquakes. The vile principles contained in the Radical platform, were detailed in a graphic manner.

At the close of the speeches, the enthusiasm of the club was loudly expressed. A vote of thanks was passed by the club expressive of their satisfaction at the visit paid by the speakers.

The representative of the press present returns his thanks to the citizens of Pocahontas for the many favors and courtesies received.

It was asserted by prominent Union men that there would not be a hundred Radical votes cast in Hardeman county in the approaching elections—a change of affairs that is too significant to pass by unnoticed. We wish all success to the Constitutional Union Club of old Hardeman.

MEMPHIS, TENN., July 20, 1868.

Messrs. W. B. Wiggs & Co.:

Gentlemen: For several years I was troubled more or less with Piles, for which complaint I was treated by the best physicians to no purpose; indeed, I gradually became worse, until at last I began to despair of relief from any source. While in this condition I was recommended to try your Buckeye Salve. Making up my mind to try it, I am now happy to say that it had the desired effect, as I am now well and hearty, for which I am indebted to your wonderful remedy. Yours, truly,

F. L. WARNER.

Upon receipt of $1 00 a bottle of this Salve will be mailed, free of postage.

THE CEREMONY AT ST. PETER'S YESTERDAY.

The beautiful Gothic church of St. Peter's, was crowded yesterday morning as we have never before seen it, with thousands, drawn together to witness the solemn and beautiful ceremony of receiving several young ladies into the habit of the order of Dominican Nuns.

The candidates for these holy honors were seven in number, and have been for some time past at St. Agnes. Their names are, or were (for with the reception of the habit, they receive also a new name): Fannie Keenan, Marian Quarry, Nora McIlarghey, Maggie Hevey, of London, Canada; and Caroline Slinger, of Perry county, Ohio; Alice M. Slattery, of Ottawa, Illinois, and Katie Leister of Chillicothe, Ohio.

At the appointed time (10 o'clock) they entered the church, attired as brides, dressed in white, with wreaths, and attended by young girls bearing flowers. At the altar the ceremonies appointed by the canons of the order and the Church were performed, and the candidates went into the sacristy, where they were invested with the habit of the order. They then passed through the pastoral residence and returned into the church, where they received the names by which they are henceforth to be known, which are as follows: Fannie Keenan became Sister Mary; Marian Quarry, Sister Martha; Nora McI'arghey, Sister Teresa; Maggie Hevey, Sister Henrietta; Caroline Slinger, Sister Mary Josepha; Alice Slattery, Sister Mary de Sales; and Katie Leister, Sister Mary Agnes.

We regret that our space does not allow us to give a more detailed account of the beautiful and impressive closing ceremonies. By far the most solemn of all, however, was the making of her religious vows by Sister Stanislaus. It was a sight that few who witnessed it can never forget—seeing these fair young creatures renouncing the vain and frivolous pleasures and glories of this world to become the brides of the church, and to devote themselves henceforth to the service of God alone.

The order of Dominican Nuns was established by St. Dominic in 1206, at Prouille, near Toulouse, the first members being mostly converts from the Albigenses. At present the order is very numerous and widely extended over Europe, Asia, Africa and North and South America, there being no less than thirty converts in East Tonquin in farther India, where, as in our midst, they devote themselves to teaching and works of charity.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, }
MEMPHIS, August 8, 1868. }

The feeling in money matters to-day is but a counterpart of that of yesterday. We know of no change whatever, except that there is more inquiry for M. & C. R. R. stock to fill Eastern orders. Holders are asking 55c, which is above the limit, we presume, as a very fair amount could be had at that figure, but there were no sales. City bonds are dull and nominal, as are all other securities, owing to the demand for money for business purposes and the many opportunities of investment which present themselves, of a safer character than bonds and stocks, while the political complexion of affairs are so much obscured.

Exchange remains scarce and in good demand at former rates.

Gold closed to-day in New York at 147⅛c. Dealers in this market report offerings light, with no outside demand. Buying at 145c. Selling at 146@147c.

The New York stock exchange quotations at noon to-day were as follows: Coupons of '81, 15⅞; do '62, 14⅞; do '64, 10⅞; do '65, 12⅛; do new issue, 8⅞; do '67, 8⅞; 10-40s, 9⅛; 7-30s, both series, none; Government bonds, firm; old Tennessees, none; new do, 62.

City Scrip is very dull. Only a few of our brokers are disposed to buy. We quote at 72@74c buying. Selling at 77@80c.

County Warrants are unchanged, with light transactions. Dealers take small amounts at 50@53c and sell at 55@58c.

Police Scrip is in fair demand. Buying at 72@73c. Selling at 75@76c.

The Liverpool cotton market to-day was firmer at the opening—Uplands, 9⅛d; Orleans, 9⅜d—and was buoyant at noon, with quotations advanced ⅛d on all grades; sales 18,000 bales; shipments from Bombay to the 4th inst., 36,000 bales.

The New York market was very firm at noon—Uplands, 29c—and at the close was quiet but steady; sales 13.0 bales.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Yesterday was a regular midsummer Sunday. Except around the gangway of the New York, which came in at an early hour, all was quiet.

The H. M. Shreve, Capt. Carter, passes down to-day for Vicksburg and the bends. Mr. H. G. Worsham, an old Memphian, is her Clerk.

MEETING TO NIGHT.—All members of the Steamboatmen's Seymour Club are requested to be present at the regular meeting to-night at half-past eight o'clock at Stillman Hall. The Railroad and Transfer men of Memphis are cordially invited to be present and enroll their names as members.

The fine steamer Belle Memphis, Capt. Geo. Crane, will leave at her usual hour to-day for Cairo and St. Louis. She has taken the place of the City of Cairo. Billy Blenker is chief clerk of the Belle, and is one of the best clerks in the packet trade. A Frenchman by trade—how could he be anything but polite?

The U. S. mail packet Natoma, Capt. Jas. Lee, gets away at 5 p.m. for Napoleon and way landings. She is prompt and reliable, and connects with the Amer can, Capt. Nowland, clerk Outlaw, for Little Rock. Fields, Whitehead and Lee are pursers of the Natoma.

The Mollie Hambleton, Capt. Bowman, with Paine, Clark and Shell in the office, backs out for the St. Francis tomorrow at 5 p.m.

The Commercial, Capt. Wm. Ashford, will be in port this morning, and leaves to morrow for all points on White river, connecting at Devall's Bluff with the Little Rock train.

Capt. John B. Davis, Superintendent of the White River Packet Company, returned yesterday from a protracted visit to the North and West. Capt. D. is in the best of health, and will devote his attention to the line with renewed vigor.

The John Kilgour and America left Louisville for New Orleans on Saturday.

The Judge Fletcher is being thoroughly repaired at Jeffersonville, and will leave for the South in about three weeks.

The Memphis and Clarksville Railroad Company are going to put a wharfboat at Danville, to transfer their freight up and down the Tennessee river.

The New York will leave for Cincinnati this evening. The old officers of the Clifton are on the New York, and passengers may be assured of good treatment. Steen and Richmond are guarantees for that.

The Minneola left Cincinnati for this port on Saturday. The Anna will follow this week under the auspices of the Memphis and Cincinnati Packet Company.

The Atlantic line bars have all been sold at prices ranging from $175 to $280 per month.

The Mayflower will be here to leave for White river on Tuesday next. The Liberty, after making one more trip, will lay up for a week or two and be rejuvenated for the fall season.

Capt. D. DeHaven is in town on his way to Louisville. It will be seen by reference to our local columns that success in his project is now assured.

One of the editors of the Knoxville Press and Herald has been to Monvale Springs. He says:

"Memphis is well represented. One will not have long been in the portico before a pair of twinkling black eyes, poorly concealed by a somewhat dilapidated cork-hat, will attract his attention. They may probably be inquiring into the size of bullets, the explosiveness of gun-caps, the "bore" of rifles, etc., but they may be engaged in studying the phisiognomy of the spectator and in reading the current history of the day and the place from nature's text book. That is Polk Pritchard, a successful broker, who, a foot-pad from Washington county, carried bricks and mortar to build the "Coffin Block," in 1854, went West and made his fortune, and now with as lovely a woman as ever honored a courtier, returns to enjoy himself in his native air. Along with him is another—not an East Tennesseean, but looking the mountaineer (in the eye) when the match is being made up. The APPEAL said that huge stories of "hunting and fishing" might be expected when Pritchard and Geohegan got back to Memphis. We admonish the APPEAL to look out for big yarns about "driving the center" and the like against the mountaineers."

We are glad to learn that the gentleman succeeded in outsitting the Bear which treed them and of which we gave an account at the time.

POPULAR WORKS ON FREEMASONRY

PUBLISHED BY THE

MASONIC PUBLISHING

—AND—

MANUFACTURING COMPANY

432 Broome Street, New York.

LITURGY OF THE ANCIENT AND ACcepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States. By Albert Pike, 33d, Sov. Grand Commander. 8vo. Splendidly illustrated with Chromo-lithographic plates and numerous wood engravings, Part II, 4th to 14th degree, $5 00.

 It would perhaps seem unnecessary after giving the above title-page to say anything further in the way of recommendation. The name of the author should of itself be a sufficient guarantee of its worth. Ill. Bro. Pike, by his learning and contributions has done as much to elevate the standard of Masonic literature and extend a knowledge of its symbolism, ethics and history as any other living man. This book, in its particular department, may justly be considered a master-piece, embracing matter not only useful to the Masonic student of every grade, but to men of science in the highest literary field of the present age. Notwithstanding this book has been preceded by several of a similar character, yet to Bro Pike alone is due the honor of first exploring this branch of Masonic literature and of opening to the admiration of the Craft its vaststorehouse of knowledge and beauty. This work contains the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Rite from the fourth to the fourteenth inclusive, is elegantly illustrated with chromo-lithograph engravings, showing all the jewels, costume, furniture, etc., belonging to each degree. No expense has been spared in getting it up, and it is without doubt the most elegant, as well as one of the most useful books, ever offered to the Fraternity.

Published and for sale by the Masonic Publishing and Manufacturing Company, 432 Broome street, New York, and Booksellers generally in the United States.

☞ Copies of the above for the Memphis Brethren are ready for delivery at the Editorial Rooms of the APPEAL, 14 Jefferson street, upstairs. 1w 1an29

Pratt's Southern Made Cotton Gin

THIS GIN is regarded by planters who have used it, as the best for sample, picking the seed clean and light draught. Planters cultivating bottom lands are requested to examine the Eureka Gin at Farrington & Howell's, 268 Front street. It will pay for itself in ginning fifty bales. A. N. Gunnison, manufacturer of the Steel Comb Gin before the war but now a planter, gives the following certificate:

"MEMPHIS, TENN., January 31, 1868.

"I take pleasure in recommending to planters cultivating Cotton on bottom lands of the Mississippi, Arkansas, White and St. Francis rivers, the Eureka Gin, made by Daniel Pratt, of Alabama. This Gin separates the hulls, bolls, etc., from the Seed Cotton, makes a good sample, and is superior to any other Gin for bottom lands. I have used one myself on a farm in Washington county, Miss., and it operates well and gives entire satisfaction in every respect. A. N. GUNNISON."

Orders for Gins, from 40 to 80 Saws and Gum Belting, at Factory Prices, addressed to the care of FARRINGTON & HOWELL, 268 Front street, Memphis, promptly filled. Presses and Gearing put up, and Gins repaired by a skillful Ginwright. G. W. TRUHEART,

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four ful round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep5 d&wly
